

Magazine

The Leaders in Construction

Reed Construction Data's Annual National Magazine of leading Canadian general contractors and construction firms, ranked nationally and regionally.

Redbook

The annual authoritative reference directory to municipalities, regional districts, school districts, cabinet ministers and members of the legislative assembly throughout Alberta and B.C.

Mass Impact (available in Print and Online)

Tell your story with Mass Impact! They are fully-customized, exclusive sections in our papers that will showcase your company, history, anniversary, project completion or the introduction of a new product/service to the market.

Maximize results and minimize investments. This initiative is supported by your partners/suppliers through advertising opportunities within the Mass Impact, and with the expertise of our sales, editorial and production departments, we offer a full turn key solution.

Inserts

Extend your reach. Leverage on the reputation and reach of the Journal of Commerce to deliver your message with effective inserts advertising.

Flex Form

Differentiate from the competition. In a world of cubes and squares it's the curve that catches the eye! Flex-form advertising gives you complete control over your advertisement's shape and position. It's a simple and effective means of catching the consumer's eye.
