

JOURNAL OF COMMERCE

'Purchasing Influence' are key words that profile Journal of Commerce readers. They specify, direct or sign the documentation that becomes a purchase order or tender award for you. The vast majority of contractors who bid on road and highway projects in Alberta and British Columbia are Journal Subscribers.

- 77% of the ICI construction industry is aware of the Journal
- Annual subscription price of $895
- Each copy is read by an average of 3.7 construction professionals
- 69% of readers mention the Journal as a source
- 80% of readers turn to the Journal for project leads, 87% for tenders
- 82% of the Journal's readership are key decision makers

Breakdown of the Journal Subscribers by Job Function

